Point&Ship Secures Place on Inc. 5000 List of U.S.-based Fastest-Growing, Private Companies

Inc.com Recognizes Software Firm's Significant Sales Increase

Walnut Creek, CA -September 22, 2008 - Pointandship Software, Inc. (Point&Ship), a provider of full-service Shipping Expense Management Software™ (SEMS™), recently achieved the No. 1,424 status on Inc.com's Inc. 5000 list of fastest- growing, privately held, U.S.-based companies. The minority-owned software-as-a-service firm also ranked No. 59 out of the top 100 businesses in the San Francisco-Oakland-Fremont, Calif. area.

Companies were evaluated for the Inc. 5000 listing according to their percentage revenue growth from 2004 through 2007. Point&Ship realized 2004 revenue of $12.7 million and 2007 revenue of $46.2 million, representing a rise of 263.8 percent. The company expects to continue on this upward path and forecasts 2008 sales of more than $65 million.

"Being included on the Inc. 5000 list is a major achievement for our company," said Ted C. Mesa, president and CEO of Point&Ship. "This honor propels us to a new level and encourages us to keep succeeding. As our business grows, we intend to continue providing our customers with a superior product and excellent service."

To that, Inc.com also noted that Point&Ship's software offers customers increased ease over corporate shipping costs while addressing Sarbanes-Oxley requirements.

Inc. 5000 is an extension of the Inc. 500, which Inc. magazine introduced in 1982. Companies were profiled on Inc.com for the second annual Inc. 5000 list. Honorees also were invited to be part of the Inc. 500 Conference and Awards Ceremony in Landover, Md. Sept. 18-20.
