

Kate Chrisman
Coldwell Banker Devonshire

Kate Chrisman recently joined Coldwell Banker Devonshire, bringing with her more than seven years of experience in the real estate industry. Formerly with Sotheby's International Realty in San Francisco, California, Kate learned to secure multimillion dollar sales in a fast-paced and competitive market.

Kate strives to provide the highest level of service with a great deal of integrity and enthusiasm when working with buyers and sellers alike. The combination of her past achievements, calm personality and current market knowledge, Kate is able to ensure a successful real estate transaction to all of her clients, in varying real estate markets.

Kate's early real estate career path first took her to the Rocky Mountains of Colorado where she worked as an assistant for Aspen Club Properties and Slifer, Smith, and Frampton at The Cordillera Valley Club. A native Minnesotan, Kate also worked closely with the American Society of Interior Designers' staff to facilitate the redesign of a noteworthy Minneapolis Victorian home, increasing its resale value by approximately 100 percent.

To expand her knowledge and expertise, Kate is currently pursuing an MBA with a concentration in real estate through the University of Denver's Daniels School of Business.

Kate is a member of the Denver Board of Realtors, Colorado Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors. She's also involved in exploring environmental causes through volunteer work. Kate holds a bachelor's degree in English and environmental studies from St. Lawrence University in Canton, N.Y.
