

WHAT'S NEW: WHITE

The advertisement features a woman with long, wavy hair, wearing a white sleeveless dress, standing in a dark, geometrically patterned space. The background consists of large, dark, angular shapes that create a sense of depth and perspective. Overlaid on these shapes is the text 'WHAT'S NOW' in a large, white, sans-serif font. The 'W' and 'N' are on the left, and the 'A', 'T', 'S', and 'E' are on the right, with a small circle positioned between the 'N' and 'A'. The overall aesthetic is modern and minimalist. In the bottom left corner of the advertisement, there is a small, semi-transparent text box containing the words 'SHOP THIS LOOK'.

Move over florals, take a look at stripes — this season's pattern of preference is bold motifs with oversized exaggeration

STYLE TIP

Don't go too matchy-matchy: don't go out head-to-toe in one pattern.
