Dive into the water and explore marine depths with the Tambour Automatic Diving Watch by LOUIS VUITTON. This sporty and elegant watch combines both modern design and technical performances, thanks to its "diving" functionalities: watertight at 300 meters and luminescent, with unidirectional turning flange to measure diving time. To enhance the sporty look, the XL case is made of brushed steel, which is softened by polished details (bezel, horns, crowns and buckle). The strap of Tambour Automatic Diving watch is made of natural brown rubber and features a discrete LOUIS VUITTON signature with the Damier pattern finely embossed. The Tambour Automatic Diving watch is also available assembled with the Damier pattern steel bracelet. $18,000. Sold exclusively in Louis Vuitton stores. louisvuitton.com. 866-VUITTON
