

Writing for Artists

Let an Experienced Writer Help You Amplify Your Distinction

The passion and creativity you bring to your art should be reflected in the language you use to represent it.

Art writing is a long-time specialty of mine, including:

- * Artist Statements
- * Bios
- * Catalog/Grant Essays
- * PR (press releases, pitch letters)
- * Journalism (articles, essays, reviews) . . . and more.

I was the director of communications for a major art school in New York. As a freelancer I have written for artists of all types: painters, photographers, conceptual artists, jewelry designers, and more.

To find out how I can help you create powerful written communications that will advance your work, please contact me today.

If you have some time to spare, please visit my blog WritingForArtists.net – you'll find posts that address essential art promotion topics.

Client Testimonials

I love it!! You've done such an amazing job. I'm so happy with my statement. Thank you very much. If I ever need any more writing, I'll be sure to call you. – Bonnie Lanzillotta

I think you describe the essence of my work beautifully. Your writing is of the utmost quality. – Katina Desmond

Adam's writing highlighted the most appealing qualities in my work; he expressed complex ideas in simple words. He was professional and meticulous. I particularly liked the interviews he conducted with me. The work he did for me reflected the creativity and substance I try to put into my own work. – Silvana LaCreta Ravena

You have done a terrific job of describing what I do. Thanks for your excellent work. – Judy Bales

PERFECT!!! You did an amazing job of crafting this into a professional artist statement. I appreciate the time and effort you spent on this, putting my work and me in the best light possible. You are a pro! – Tim Pfeiffer

This is EXCELLENT!!! I am over the moon happy with it. Thank you so much for your talent, insight, patience, and perseverance. I am delighted that I chose to work with you on this. Thank you, thank you. – Leslie Begert

After a first read of the artist statement you wrote for me, I think it's just extraordinary, better than I could have imagined. – Randy Susick
