The Hampton Roads area around Virginia Beach, VA is a kayaker's paradise. Seated in a single or double kayak, drop in on a dolphin playground in just a couple of hours. With a trained guide, you'll start out by launching over the surf into open waters. Paddle out of the cool sea spray and prepare to float practically nose-to-nose with man y of these amazing whistling animals who will leap out of the water just feet from your kayak. After visiting with your new sea friends and swimming if time allows, practice your skills by returning to the beach. You will get wet – it is the ocean after all! Don't worry if you slide off your craft. Life vests supplied by the tour will keep you safe and the open kayaks are easy to get back into. Our expert guides will have prepared you for this challenge which for many feels like an awesome accomplishment.

Love to try kayaking but concerned about motion sickness? This kayak rentals outfitter is also your ticket to fun on calmer inland and bay waters. Choose from a selection of flat-water tours which vary in length from 2.5 hours to all-day excursions around Lake Drummond or eastern shore beaches. Shorter tours travel to the Back Bay National Wildlife Refuge, First Landing State Park, Blackwater River, Plum Tree Island, and include a sunset voyage in the lush Norfolk Botanical Gardens. Cruise in the shade of cypress forests and under bald eagle and osprey nests. You'll paddle along grassy marshes, creeks and sandy beaches.

Advance reservations are required. Make them by calling (888) 669-8368 or online where you'll find rates, detailed tour descriptions, and helpful information about what to bring for an enjoyable trip. Guests receive directions to tour starting points which vary by trip. Staff are happy to answer questions via email to fun@kayaknaturetours.net. Dolphin tours leave from late May through October and flat-water tours set off year-round, weather permitting.
