Walk-in Urgent Care

The Waiting Room...Redefined.

Imagine you need to see a doctor. What if you could do it on your terms? There'd be no need for an appointment. You could go at a time that was convenient for you. And the office would be nearby.

Best of all, you could turn your time waiting for the doctor into time well-spent. You could shop or run a few quick errands, then get a cell phone call or a page when the doctor was ready to see you. Or, you could simply relax in a clean, bright, comfortable waiting room designed especially for busy people like you, and your family.

Sound like a fantasy?
Sounds like Solantic.

“The first thing that attracted our attention [to Solantic] was the fact that they were open extended hours—nights, weekends and holidays—and when we found out that they employed board certified physicians, we were hooked. We’ve been using them ever since.”
—Diane Piston, Jacksonville, FL
