Led Zeppelin: BBC Sessions

Mysterious, mercurial myths in their own time, Led Zeppelin comes alive in BBC Sessions – 2 hours of the Zep in its prime.

Marvin Gaye: Vulnerable

Though Marvin Gaye was often tormented and always Vulnerable, his music never lacked the pure, sweet soul which made him great.

Lucinda Williams: Car Wheels on a Gravel Road

Loquacious Lucinda is gritty and real, her lyrics revealing a conflicted soul and penetrating mind as she draws us into universal settings and emotions.

Band Copy for DeQuincey's Dream (a local NYC band)

DeQuincey's Dream: a rocked out trio rooted in the literary and headed for the sublime. Sweetly soft yet rustily hard, The Dream will roll you out and melt your subconscious to the id. Songs like Zydeco Junkie drops opium on the tongue and grit on the brain.
