

CONTACT: LYNMAR ESTATE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Andrea Kaplan
andrea@lynmarestate.com
(707) 829-3374 x.107

LYNMAR ESTATE INTRODUCES LUXURY WEEKEND GETAWAYS

The new 'Bliss House' rental invites guests to get a glimpse of life in wine country

SEBASTOPOL, Ca. (September 2010) – Lynmar Estate, a producer of ultra-premium Pinot Noir and Chardonnay announces the availability of its luxury guest house.

Nestled in the vineyards of Lynmar Estate and overlooking the magnificent Laguna de Santa Rosa in Western Sonoma County, the Bliss House is a tranquil retreat from which to experience the treasures of wine country. Guests can escape to the Bliss House for a weekend of relaxing with special experiences tailored to fit each guests needs.

“It truly is an unparalleled setting,” says Lynn Fritz, Proprietor of Lynmar Estate. “We’ve spent over thirty years developing a serene and environmentally responsible property, and the Bliss House is the perfect accompaniment...allowing our guests to experience our vision first-hand.”

Proprietor and prominent humanitarian Lynn Fritz purchased the home from Don and Diane Bliss in 2006. It features three bedrooms, three-and-a-half bathrooms, two commercial kitchens, plush linens and floor-to-ceiling windows that wrap around the house. Once served only as an occasional retreat for VIP guests, it is now available to the public for $900 per night March through October and $750 per night November through February.

It is the intention of Lynmar Estate to offer customized services for renters including spa weekends, a gourmet chef for intimate dinners, private and exclusive winery tours and other options.

Nearby attractions include shops, art galleries, and dozens of wineries and dining options in surrounding areas including Sebastopol, Sonoma, Healdsburg and Windsor. Whether the desire is to explore the region or fully stay on the Estate, guests are sure to walk away feelings satisfied and eager to recommend this one-of-a-kind wine country experience.

Lynmar Estate is a renowned 100-acre family-owned winery in the heart of Northern California's wine country. Just one hour north of the Golden Gate Bridge, it offers limited production Pinot Noir and Chardonnay that have garnered numerous awards and accolades since the first release in 1996.

Those interested should inquire about open dates to secure their fabulous weekend in the rustic Russian River Valley. Please contact Candi Norris (candi@lynmarestate.com / 707.829.3374 x.102) for details.

XXX